

WHAT A PLEDGE LOOKS FOR IN A BIG SISTER

Someone who will listen, not interrupt you while you are talking.

Someone who understands when you want to be sad or happy.

Someone who you can look up to and respect.

Someone who will be with you, even if there is nothing to be said.

Someone who will not judge you, but accept you for who you are.

Someone who seems to sincerely care about you.

Someone you want to get to know just a little better.

Someone who cares about your safety and well-being.

Someone who cares about how you are doing in school.

Someone who you can trust!
